WHIG MEETING.
A meeting of the Whigs of Newport will be held at the STATE HOUSE, on Tuesday Evening, 27th inst., at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend the Whig State and Congressional Conventions.

Our readers will undoubtedly be rejoiced to learn that a permanent musical organization has been effected.

The Ladies and Gentlemen who were engaged in the recent very successful performance of "Daniel" have associated themselves together and give a first performance Thursday evening under the style of "Philharmonic Society."

We think that all our citizens who have the good and reputation of Newport at heart will see at once the duty of sustaining this Society. The support given at the last performance of the "Cantata" was generous in the extreme and highly creditable to our citizens. We trust that now that our people have been induced to embark in this enterprise that the same generous support will be continued.

We learn that the Tickets for meeting with a ready sale. The number is limited and none will be sold at the door. Those intending should be particular to purchase at once, otherwise they may be like hundreds at the last performance too late.

The magnificent Panorama now exhibited at Bellevue Hall, it is the finest collection of Paintings we have ever had the pleasure of witnessing and the manner in which it is delineated is very pleasing. Mr. Sumner's Oratorical powers are grand, lofty and elegant, and with all, quite humorous; and who love good singing should not fail to hear the pleasing variety of songs introduced by Miss Ella Lee, and Mr. Daniels. The magical part of the performance is really wonderful and huggable, the manner in which he gives Ladies in Cookery was very funny, and in speaking of Mr. Lyman all we can say is, success go with him he is one of the drollest specimens of human nature we have met with lately, and the best banjo player that has ever been amongst us. We bespeak for Mr. Howards, the gentlemanly Proprietor of this exhibition, a crowded house. Tickets only fifteen cents, we say to all our readers go and see it.

The Charleston Mercury thinks that the Southern people have no need of "hunting up a candidate for the Presidency" while they have such a good Southern man as Gen. Pierce. The Mercury says:

"We have a President who has faithfully performed his duties; who has in no one instance failed to defend the constitutional rights of the South; and we cannot, if we hunt the whole country over, expect to find a truer man than President Pierce. Why need we trouble ourselves about a candidate? We have tried the President and know what he is."

What pledges could Mr. Dickinson, or any other candidate give, that would weigh against the tried firmness and worth of Gen. Pierce?"

ILLINOIS. The Alton Telegraph, discussing the question of the eligibility of Judge Trumbull to the post of United States Senator, brings to light the fact that precisely similar language is applying to the Judge. It will be remembered that the old-line Democracy of the Legislature voted for Shields several times, when, finding it a hopeless cause, they dropped him and voted for the present Governor, Matteson. We now have this curious spectacle: It is said the Governor will refuse to issue a certificate to Judge Trumbull, and will urge as a reason precisely the clause in the Constitution of the State which, according to his interpretation, would have made his election void if he had secured a majority of votes. This is a nice dilemma. We shall see how the Democracy propose to escape from it.—Ohio State Journal.

Emperor Nicholas—Effect of his Death. The National Intelligencer is of opinion that the son of Nicholas, who succeeds to the imperial throne of Russia, will consider the war bequeathed to him as a sacred duty, to be prosecuted with redoubled vigor and to the last extremity; and that he will listen to no terms of adjustment short of those which his father would have exacted. The following remarks are from the Intelligencer:

"The Emperor Nicholas may be regarded perhaps, as the greatest sovereign of modern times, and few have filled a wider space in the history of the world. With an empire extending from the Baltic to Bearing's Strait he ruled two-thirds of the circumference of the habitable globe, and over all those vast territories and races he was known and felt.—Throughout that immense region he might be said to be 'the State.' He was identified with all its interests, moral, social, political, and religious. He knew everything, inspired everything, directed everything, controlled and superintended everything, military, civil and ecclesiastical. It is not to be wondered at, that, to such a labor of thirty years' duration, even his colossal frame and strong brain should at last yield and succumb. With the genius of the Great Frederick in administrative capacity, he had almost the genius of Napoleon for war. His moral and conscientious qualities surpassed those of either. 'The sudden death of such a man, even in a time of universal peace, might well produce a stir among the crowned heads of Europe.—How much greater than must be the dread, the uncertainty, of what may be the consequences under existing circumstances.—A thousand wild speculations will be formed; the diplomacy of Europe will be tortured to make it subserve particular theories; new scales for regulating the balance of power will be asserted and maintained by a Congress of Plenipotentiaries, each striving to outmaneuver each; and the unhappy result may be universal war. We forbear for the present, however, to trust ourselves to further conjecture, for all must be conjecture until the new Emperor shall have done something from which his future intentions may be inferred. We trust in God that his policy may be peaceful, and that a speedy end may be put to the sufferings of the present terrible war."

Humiliation and Prayer in Alabama.—Governor Winston has issued a proclamation, setting apart Saturday, the 7th of April as a day of humiliation and prayer to be observed by the people of Alabama. In a letter transmitting the proclamation, the governor makes the following remarks on the gloomy aspect of the political relations with the southern states:

"It well becomes every one whose political life has been cast in this section of the Union to examine prayerfully the sad to which political fanaticism at the north is so rapidly tending, and to consider the wisdom to conduct our infant people through the difficulties of the revolutionary struggle and the establishment of a constitutional government, to enable us to bear ourselves in whatever emergency we may be placed so as not to reflect disgrace on our ancestors."

The Comfort of French Railways.—A Paris correspondent of the Newark Advertiser says: "The French cars are much more comfortable than the English, a fact which I take pleasure in recording on account of its uniqueness, it being the only particular I have yet seen in which comfort appeared to be studied. The first class, beside luxurious cushions and a thick sheepskin carpet, are supplied with long, flattened cylinders of copper filled with hot water, renewed at intervals, and affording a most agreeable warmth to the feet. What a contrast to the English cars in which I froze for seven mortal hours between Liverpool and London! And how much better, too, are these cylinders than the close stoves with which our cars are heated."

England Coming to the United States for Arms.—Robbins & Lawrence, the great gun-making firm at Windsor, Vt., have recently contracted to manufacture twenty thousand rifles for the British Government, and are preparing to execute the contract with all possible dispatch. They are to be made after the model furnished from England. This is an additional feather in Brother Jonathan's cap. We are already building machinery, at Windsor and Chicopee, to enable England to manufacture her muskets by the same improved processes that our government manufactures its muskets; and that tribute to the superiority of our mechanics and the results of their ingenuity and labor, is now followed up by this other order for a large supply of rifles to be used in the pending war. If John Bull has not found out yet 'who reads an American book' he is putting himself in the way of learning who uses an American gun.—[Springfield (Mass.) Republican.

Northampton, which was the only town in the State last fall where the Know Nothing were beaten in a fair fight, has just now held its election of town officers. The citizen's ticket was chosen by about a hundred majority over all others. None of the officers elected, except one or two constables, are Know Nothings. S. P. Lyman, who was turned out of the office of Register of Probate by Gov. Gardner, was chosen Moderator.—(Boston Tel.

CANTING A "DEVIL" OUT OF CHURCH.—A Methodist Minister Arrested for Assaulting a Distiller.—We are indebted to our friend J. M. Ellis, of Marietta, Ohio, for the following graphic sketch. We are assured that the facts transpired substantially as narrated:

"A Methodist clergyman who has been laboring in this vicinity, was no long since, preaching to his people on the minuscule power of the Apostles over the demonic spirits of their day. As he was pursuing his theme, the audience were suddenly startled by a voice from some one in the congregation, demanding in a half-querulous, half-authoritative tone, 'Why don't preachers do such thing now-a-days?' In an instant over eyes in the house was turned upon the individual who had the effrontery thus to invade the sacredness of their sanctuary. The speaker paused for a moment, and fixed his penetrating gaze full upon the face of the questioner. There was an interval of intense silence, broken at last by the speaker in resuming his subject. He had not proceeded far with his remarks, before he was again interrupted by the same importunate inquiry. Again he paused for a time, and again resumed his subject. Not content with a silent rebuke, our redoubtable questioner demanded again, 'Why don't the preachers do such things now-a-days?' and curling his lips with a sneer of self-complacency, drew himself up pompously in his seat.

Our reverend friend, (who, by the way, is a young man of great muscular power), calmly left the desk, and walked deliberately to the pew, where the interrogator sat, and fastening one hand firmly upon the collar of his coat, the other on the waistband of his "unmentionables," lifted him square out of the seat, and bore him down the aisle to the entrance. Pausing for a moment there, he turned his eyes upon his audience, and in a clear, full voice, said, "and they cast out the devil in the form of a distiller," and suiting the action to the word, put went the knight of the maul-tub, a leap frog fashion, into the street.

The good pastor quietly returned to his desk, and completed his discourse. After closing the services, as he was passing out of the church, the out-cast distiller, with an officer of the law, escorted our clerical friend to the office of a magistrate, to answer for an assault upon the person of said distiller. After hearing the magistrate dismissed the clergyman, and after roundly reprimanding the complainant fined him for molesting the services of the sanctuary.

Since that day we believe he has never for a moment doubted the power of Methodist preachers to cast out devils, at least within the limits of the Ohio Conference.—Binghamton (N. Y.) Standard.

who was convicted of forgery on the American Exchange Bank, and thereby defrauding the Chemical Bank of $12,000, was this morning, sentenced by Recorder Smith to a term of two years and a half in the state prison. The prisoner made a long speech, declaring his innocence, before the sentence was pronounced.—Com. Adm.

The Highest Officers in the Army.—Gen. Scott's Brevet rank of Lieutenant General does not create a vacancy in the place he formerly held. He is still Major General, Commanding in Chief. Next to him on the army roll is General Wood, who has the actual rank of Brigadier and Brevet rank of Major General. Next to him is, General Twiggs, who has the same titles though his commission is of a later date.

The correspondent of the N. Y. Times, who attended the opening of the Panama Railroad, gives the following description of the obstacles its builders had to contend against:

"This fifty miles of railway crosses more than one hundred and thirty bridges from six feet in length to six hundred, and wherever there is the possibility of a swellable stream there is a culvert; and all these bridges are, or are to be, of iron. It was cut through swamps, full of the tangled roots of water lilies, wild plantains, bamboos covered with four inch thorns, six inches in diameter thirty, forty fifty feet in height; through cedar trees, each trunk of which makes a canoe to hold from two to thirty people, through all the sorts of palm, palm real, the kindly. Through twisted mangrove clusters through groves of poisonous manzanilla, to sleep beneath which is death; the smoke of burning wood destroying the eyesight; Through more than five thousand varieties of noticeable plants the patient engineer cut his way, knowing as he knows to-day that if the track were left unwatched one year it would be utterly covered up and hidden by vegetation twenty, or thirty feet in height."

A Snake breaking a Man's Ribs.—Danger of Playing with Reptiles.—A most heart-rending transaction occurred at Madison, Ind., on Tuesday last, to a gentleman named McDonald. He was admiring a beautiful collection of every description of reptiles on exhibition there. He foolishly attempted to handle a snake, when said snake coiled around his body, and, with his terrific strength succeeded in breaking three of Mr. McDonald's ribs.—[Louisville Dem.

BY TELEGRAPH.
Boston, March 23.
The operative strike at Manchester still continues, and now absorbs the entire force of the mills, in all probably several thousand persons.
The agents refuse to give in, and the strikers are marching through the streets. One procession on Thursday afternoon, was headed by a large cavalcade, seven fire companies in uniform, bands of music, females carrying banners, &c.
The strikers were out in large numbers, and the streets were never before seen. Such excitement was never before seen there. The owners of the mills say that there is no profit now in going on with manufacturing, and that they have no objection to stop for a while.

The Massachusetts Assembly to-day refused by a large majority to amend the ten hours bill, so as to make it read eleven hours.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE GEO. LAW.
The San Francisco Journal thus sums up the state of affairs at the departure of the steamer:

Page, Bacon & Co.,—the first that closed—will open again, provided that an arrangement can be made with creditors for payment on certificates of deposit. The people in general have considerable confidence in the ultimate solvency of the house.
Adams & Co. have declared themselves insolvent. They probably will ultimately pay a large dividend, but not cent. per cent. Still Adams & Co. from the fact that its express business is almost identified with the state, must, it would seem, in some shape, continue to exist.

Wells, Fargo & Co. have resumed payment. They are on every hand considered safe.
Dr. Wright's Miners' Savings Bank promise fairly. The managers assert that they will either open this week, or make next week a statement and proposal to their creditors that must be satisfactory.

Robinson & Co.'s affairs are in considerable confusion. We can make no certain statement in regard to them.
Lucas, Turner & Co., Palmer, Cook & Co., B. Davidson, Drexel, Sauter & Church, Tallant & Wildo, Sanders & Breckinridge, have firmly stood the "crisis" and are perfectly safe. No private firms have to our knowledge yet given way under the pressure.

FROM THE MINES.
The Alta California of March 1, says:—The long looked for rain has come, and the miner and agriculturist will gain thousands where they have lost hundreds by the bank failures. It has rained steadily for nearly 72 hours, and judging from the accounts already received, we are led to believe it has extended all through the state.
Throughout the mining section an immense quantity of dirt has been thrown up, awaiting only for water to repay the miner awaiting only for water to repay the miner for his toil. A gentleman, for whose opinion we entertain profound respect, estimates that in 21 Dorado county alone, enough dirt has been heaped up to wash out $8,000,000.
